

SHORE EXCURSIONS

Discover Jungle Falls Hike

Nawiliwili, Kauaʻi

Duration 2 1/2 hrs

DURATION 2 1/2 hrs

ACTIVITY LEVEL 2

Hike through the rainforest in Huleia National Wildlife Refuge to two spectacular waterfalls, where you may swim in the refreshing pools below. The refuge is closed to the public to protect the endangered species, but you will enjoy special access to this natural wonderland. As you follow a descending trail, the guide will describe the lush flora, which may include wild coffee, lobster claw heliconia and hau trees, the branches of which Hawaiians once used to make outrigger floats. Named for its stand of graceful bamboo, Bamboo Falls is the smaller of the cascades, while Papakolea Falls plummets down more than 60 feet. Both are breathtaking. Feel free to swim, stand under the waterfalls for a natural massage or simply relax on the rocky shore and behold nature's beauty. Later, you will gaze out over Menehune Fish Pond, home to dozens of avian species such as the nēnē, Hawaii's state bird.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Behold two little-known waterfalls in Huleia National Wildlife Refuge.
- Swim in the pools below the cascades or simply enjoy the beautiful peaceful settings.
- Learn about the surrounding flora and fauna, much of it indigenous and endangered.
- Admire nearby natural areas such as the Menehune Fish Pond.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing with a swimsuit underneath.
- Bring a hat, sunscreen and insect repellent.
- Wear water shoes or walking shoes with good traction.

Need to Know:

Note: Water shoes with good grip recommended for the whole tour. No flip-flops allowed. Water shoes are available to rent for an additional fee of $10.00 (CASH ONLY). Expect footwear and clothes to get wet/dirty and muddy. Wear swimwear, and bring sunscreen, bug-spray, and a towel. No water bottles, bring your own container for water refills. Minimum age is 6 years. Max weight: 265 pounds. This tour is not appropriate for people with back problems, recent surgeries, bone/joint problems, heart conditions, or women who are pregnant.

Not recommended for those over 70.

Kauai Hiking Adventures

Nawiliwili, Kauaʻi

DURATION 5 hrs

ACTIVITY LEVEL 3

Duration 5 hrs

Hike a winding forest trail through some of the most spectacular countryside on Kauai, a natural wonderland that lives up to its nickname, the "Garden Island."

After departing from the pier, you will learn about the history of Kauai from the local guide, who will regale you with stories of the "Garden Island." The oldest and northernmost island in the Hawaiian chain, Kauai is covered by tropical rainforest, emerald-green valleys and jagged mountains of volcanic origin. It is a gorgeous setting for hiking through the forest.

The trail that you will follow covers about five miles and is immensely picturesque the entire time. As you hike through the lush wilderness, you will gaze out over some of the most extraordinary terrain in Hawaii. You can expect to see thundering waterfalls, primeval mountains and deep valleys, all created by ancient volcanic activity.

Along the way, the guide will point out the most interesting flora and fauna, especially those endemic to Kauai. You may see indigenous white plumbago in bloom, unusual ferns on the forest floor, brightly colored bromeliads clinging to tree branches and native forest birds such as the Kauai Amakihi and the Anianiau, the smallest of Hawaii's honeycreepers.

After about three hours of hiking in this natural wonderland, you will be served a light boxed lunch in a nearby picnic area. You will also have time to explore a bit on your own.

Need to Know:

Note: Minimum age requirement of 10 years. Not suitable for guest with existing medical conditions such as but not limited to bad knees, sore back, respiratory problems, allergies to plants and trees. Recommended for active guest - must be able to hike 5 miles/8 kilometers round trip, 700ft/214 meter elevation gain. Slippery, uneven, muddy surfaces in some areas. Expose to the elements and unforeseen rain at times. Hiking, closed toed, or athletic shoes are required. Also, comfortable lightweight clothing, rain jacket, small backpack for personal items, hat and mosquito repellent are recommended.

Hidden Valley Falls Kayak

Nawiliwili, Kauaʻi

DURATION 3 3/4 hrs

ACTIVITY LEVEL 2

Duration 3 3/4 hrs

Hike in the rainforest, paddle a kayak and learn how ancient Hawaiians lived in harmony with nature. This river kayak adventure takes you into the Huleia National Wildlife Refuge, home to many of Hawaii's native wetland birds and plants, and not open to the general public. You'll paddle a comfortable, stable, sit-on-top double kayak. Listen to the legend of the Menehune Fishpond as you float past it. This ingenious pond was built to catch fish nearly 1,000 years ago.

Take a one-mile guided walk through the rainforest and learn about the unique plant and animal life of the area, and how the ancient Hawaiians lived in harmony with nature. See film locations from Raiders of the Lost Ark. And with Indiana Jones in mind, take a leap off a rope swing for a refreshing dip in a cool mountain pool. Stop for snacks and cold drinks at a fern-shrouded waterfall and make the return trip aboard a super cool, twin-hulled, powered Hawaiian canoe.

DURATION 4 1/2 hrs

ACTIVITY LEVEL 2

OVERVIEW

Pedal a beach cruiser along the incredibly picturesque Ke Ala Hele Makalae bike path and stop at your pleasure at the eclectic shops and restaurants along the way. Although the paved coastal trail is about eight miles long, you can bike just a small segment of it or pedal much farther. Your beach cruiser has seven gears so you can easily negotiate the elevation changes. This being a self-guided adventure, you will be free to ride at your own speed and stay at the attractions until you are ready to go. A digital app will make navigation simple and clearly show the points of interest along the bike path. Or simply ask the local walkers, joggers and other bicyclists about their favorite places. Interpretive signs will describe the easy-to-access archaeological, cultural and historic sites nearby. The endless seascape may be best attraction of all, as it is spectacular the entire way.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ride a beach cruiser along a scenic bike path that follows the sea.
- Pedal at your own pace, bike as far as you wish and stop whenever you please.
- Use the digital app that describes points of interest along the way.

Discover Kauai

Nawiliwili, Kauaʻi

Duration 6 hrs

Admire the endless beauty of Kauai by cruising through the jungle to the Fern Grotto, exploring a wildlife refuge and stopping in an idyllic bay in the shadow of lush mountains.

Depart from the pier and enjoy a leisurely drive north to a marina on the Wailua River, one of the few navigable waterways in Hawaii. Starting high atop Mount Waialeale in the center of Kauai, the river tranquilly weaves through 20 miles of thick jungle.

While cruising, you will stop at the geological wonder Fern Grotto, a lava-rock cave covered with tropical flora. Being a natural amphitheater, the grotto provides a wondrous setting and fine acoustics for the musicians who will serenade you with traditional Hawaiian tunes.

Continuing on, you will head toward Kilauea National Wildlife Refuge to see its towering lighthouse and bird sanctuary. The refuge's ocean cliffs and grassy slopes provide a fine habitat for some of the largest populations of nesting seabirds in Hawaii. Be on the lookout for red-footed boobies, Laysan albatross, and wedge-tailed shearwaters.

Then, after an island picnic lunch on Anini Beach, you will be treated to a view of beautiful, crescent-shaped Hanalei Bay and its signature pier. The landmark Waioli Huiia Church stands nearby, a reminder of the missionaries who settled here in the 1830s.

Finally, you will depart the North Shore and return to Nawiliwili, but not before stopping for photos of the 150-foot Opaekaa Falls. Opaekaa means "rolling shrimp," which were once abundant in the stream.

DURATION 6 hrs

ACTIVITY LEVEL 2

Need to Know:

Note: This tour includes approximately 90-minutes of easy to moderate walking that includes some uneven terrain and steps to negotiate.
